Evaluation Process to Measure Attainment of COs, PSOs and POs

Evaluation of the Attainment of The COs:

The Department of each subject at Vinayak Vidnyan Mahavidyalaya evaluates the attainment of Course Outcomes (COs) by direct and indirect assessments of students' performance. Direct assessment includes the semester-end examination conducted by the Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University. Indirect assessment includes class tests, mid-semester examinations, home assignments, project assignments, laboratory assignments, viva voce, and student feedback. The degree of attainment of COs is expressed in terms of the level of attainment, and the benchmarks defined for the measurement of attainment levels for undergraduate courses are as follows:

- ❖ Level 1: 40% of enrolled students have scored  $\geq 50\%$  marks in the final examination
- ❖ Level 2: 50% of enrolled students have scored  $\geq 50\%$  marks in the final examination
- ❖ Level 3: 60% of enrolled students have scored  $\geq 50\%$  marks in the final examination
- ❖ Level 4: 70% of enrolled students have scored  $\geq 50\%$  marks in the final examination

Evaluation of the Attainment of the PSOs:

The Department of each subject at Vinayak Vidnyan Mahavidyalaya evaluates the attainment of Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs) by indirect assessment of students' performance. Indirect assessment includes class tests, mid-semester examinations, home assignments, project assignments, laboratory assignments, viva voce, and student feedback. The PSOs are evaluated based on the achievement of the desired outcomes in the programme-specific context.

Evaluation of the Attainment of the POs:

The attainment of Programme Outcomes (POs) is not explicitly evaluated in the evaluation report submitted by each department of Vinayak Vidnyan Mahavidyalaya. However, it can be inferred that the attainment of POs is indirectly evaluated through the attainment of COs and PSOs, as POs are the desired outcomes of the entire programme, while COs and PSOs are the desired outcomes of individual courses and the programme-specific context, respectively. Therefore, the attainment of COs and PSOs collectively indicates the attainment of POs.
